

Why not citizens?

The home of citizenship

Citizenship is beautiful for it means:

We can all be free to express who we really are.

We all share responsibility for making the world as good as it can be.

We can live together as equals, in all our diversity.

So let's act as citizens